

REFERENCES (5%)

Appropriate References

2

1

0

Reference sources are appropriate for a scientific paper. Number and variety of references indicate that the author has a high level of understanding of the subject.

Some reference sources are not appropriate for a scientific paper. Number and variety of references indicate that the author has a moderate understanding of the subject.

Reference sources are missing.

Reference Format

3

2

1

References properly cited in text and formatted correctly.

References not properly cited in the text but formatted correctly.

References are improperly cited in the text and formatted incorrectly.